Online Master of Social Work

Advanced Track

You want to change
the world.

Our degree can help you do it.

You dedicate your life to helping others. As a social worker you counsel individuals, families, children, and entire communities through adversity. Your specialized skills help improve the lives of those most vulnerable and help them function in society. Now you can turn your passion into graduate-level expertise.

OHIO's online Master of Social Work emphasizes serving the rural environment and providing skills appropriate for multiple contexts and communities. Study with us and learn how to empower clients — whether individuals, families, or communities — with tools to address addiction, mental health, poverty, abuse, trauma, and injustice.

- Create innovative solutions for clients with limited resources.
- Engage with traditionally underserved clients.
- Improve the lives of clients struggling with financial shortfalls.
- Provide outreach to those with accessibility needs.
- Develop rapport and connect with diverse clientele.
- Diagnose, assess, and treat mental illnesses and addictions.

Bring new resources to rural and marginalized populations.
